

Comann nam Pàrant

Guide to Who's Who in the Gaelic World

www.parant.org.uk

BÒRD NA GÀIDHLIG

Comann nam Pàrant (CNP)

Or “Parents Organisation” represents the interest of parents whose children are educated through the medium of Gaelic at all levels. We provide advice and support as well as assistance to local CNP groups.

www.parant.org.uk

Bòrd na Gàidhlig

Works to promote Gaelic and ensure it's sustainable future through partnerships with Gaelic organisations and the Scottish Government, from which it receives a Grant-In-Aid award each financial year in order to meet its obligations.

www.gaidhlig.scot

Comunn na Gàidhlig (CnaG)

Provides Gaelic services throughout Scotland, the programme for young people offers a variety of fun events as well as certified awards, including Sradagan camp, that provide a great way to strengthen young people's Gaelic.

www.cnag.org

Stòrlann

Co-ordinating the production of resources for Gaelic education, they also provide support for parents via the website www.gaelic4parents.com
www.storlann.co.uk

An Comunn Gàidhealach

Their main projects are The Royal National Mod and the various local Mods. These events aim to support the language, culture and history of the Gael.

www.acgmod.org

Fèisean nan Gàidheal

The umbrella association of the Fèis (Gaelic arts tuition festivals) movement with around 13,000 young people annually participating in activities they support.

www.feisean.org

Comhairle na Leabhraichean

Supports Gaelic writing and publishing as well as selling Gaelic books for people of all ages.

www.gaelicbooks.org